LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"Love your enemies and do good to them." We have such a hard time with this teaching! But it doesn't end there. Jesus continues with turning the other cheek when struck, giving to everyone who asks, doing to others as you would have them do to you, being merciful, stopping our judgment of others, forgiving, and giving. We are okay when God does these things but get a little anxious when we realize that God really wants us to do them too! Secular justice and Gospel justice are definitely not the same. We need to remember that we are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian is called to act like Christ even in those situations where a more assertive or defensive response may seem more justifiable. In order to live up to this call we have to leave our resentment and need for retaliation behind, lose our defensiveness and bring into our mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world. We are not here to satisfy or promote our own well-being and agenda. We are here for God's. That's a hard nut to crack especially when it comes to loving and forgiving people who do hurtful and violent things.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

As a disciple of St. John, the Evangelist, St. Polycarp was able to hear about Jesus' life, death, and resurrection directly from those who witnessed it. Because Polycarp was ordained as Bishop of Smyrna by St. John, he is one of three chief Apostolic Fathers, along with Clement of Rome and Ignatius of Antioch.

During his life Polycarp defended the Church against heresies. His important writing, the Letter to the Philippians, quoted the Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, stressing Paul's authority in the Church and setting out clear arguments against the gnostic heresy that denied Christ's divinity.

The early period of the Church was a dangerous time to be a Christian and like many, St. Polycarp was martyred. He was captured by Romans and sentenced to burn at the stake. However, the fire did not touch him, instead rising up like sails around him. Seeing that the flames would not injure Polycarp, the Romans stabbed him instead. The Martyrdom of Polycarp is perhaps the earliest fully preserved account of a Christian martyr.

STEWARDSHIP

Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time (February 20, 2022) "Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38

When we give generously of the resources God has entrusted to us, we always receive more than we give.

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. For confidential information about or to register for the February program beginning with a weekend on February 18-20, 2022, call 502-479-3329; email: 3012@helpourmarriage.org; or go to helpourmarriage.org.

CATHOLICS AT THE CAPITAL

Advocacy 2022 - Catholics at the Capital
Wednesday, February 23, 2022, 10AM to 2PM
Frankfort, Ky.
Capitol Annex, Room 171

Holy Trinity has been extended an invitation to attend Catholics at the Capitol. This event is sponsored by the Catholic Conference of Kentucky. The CCK represents the four Catholic bishops in Kentucky in state and federal issues. This a day dedicated to education and training on current legislative issues and to have your voice heard. Speakers include Archbishop Kurtz and representatives from the CCK. After that, attendees have the opportunity to meet with their legislators. Attendees are invited to sit in the gallery and watch when the House and Senate convene at 2 PM.

There are numerous policy priorities for Archbishop Kurtz this year:

- The pro-life YES for Life campaign in support of the constitutional amendment to clarify that there is no right to an abortion in the state constitution.
- HB 269, to exempt those with severe mental illnesses from the death penalty
- SB 50/HB 305, which would expand the educational tax credit program to strengthen school choice.
- Numerous issues related to criminal justice reform and gun violence, which can be found on the website for the KY Smart on Crime coalition

If you have interest in attending, please contact Bev Beckman at 502-292-9519 cell or text or bevbeckman1@gmail.
