5th SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more.”
- Jn 8:11b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

COMMUNITY

HOLY TRINITY PARISH SCHOOL

Thank you to everyone who joined us for The Addams Family, Young@Part last weekend at The Eifler Theater on our Clifton Campus. We are so proud of all our young actors and actresses, crew, props team, digital backdrop crew, and everyone who had a hand in making the production a success. We're looking forward to two more musical productions this spring by our 1st-5th graders, and phase 1 of renovations to the theater will begin in June.

We appreciate everyone who has supported our theater program and our For Every Child Campaign. We're getting close to our campaign goal and encourage you to prayerfully consider a gift to help us complete these wonderful initiatives to serve more children. Donations can be made online at <https://htparish.weshareonline.org/ws/opportunities/ForEveryChildCampaign> or by contacting Shannon Klimek at sklimek@htparish.org.

Come join St. Vincent de Paul Louisville's Third Annual Roses & Rosé event, scheduled for Saturday, April 30th, 2022 at Audubon Country Club. This upscale-casual brunch is a wonderful way to celebrate the women and mothers in our lives, and events such as this are critical to fund SVDP's mission. It will be centered largely on feel-good message of women, mother/sisterhood, friendship, empowerment, and of course a delicious brunch and drinks, all for a great cause of supporting our neighbors in need. You can purchase your tickets at <https://www.svdplou.org/home/roses-rose-april-30-2022/>. Contact Makenzie Smith at 502-272-2134 or msmith@svdplou.org with any questions.

It's that time of year again! Spring is springing up everywhere and the HTPS 7th graders are your connection to sprucing up your flower garden.

Check out www.htparish.org for your order form.

We are excited to invite all our Grandparents to join us for mass on Sunday, May 15th at our 11:00 Mass. Grandparents and Grandchildren are encouraged to sit together and enjoy a donut and coffee after mass. Classrooms at both campuses will be open for families to visit, and students to share their spaces with their grandparents. Some parish and school administrators will be available, as well.

Stewardship renewal packets went out last month!

Don't forget to complete and return to the office at your earliest convenience.

Be sure to include any updates to your household! A new baby?? New email?? New address??

Let's us know!

We want to make sure we have the most accurate data for your family!

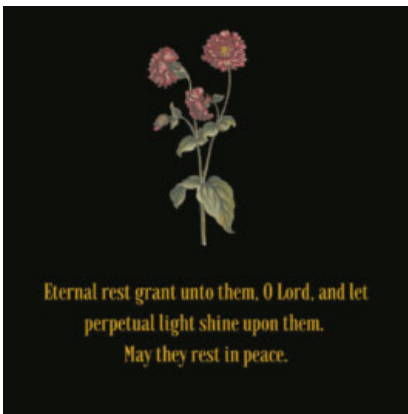

Would you like to receive Baptism into the Christian faith, receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, enrich your prayer-life, grow in your relationship with God in becoming an intentional disciple of Jesus Christ, uncover the wonderful treasures within the Catholic faith?

All are welcome, whether you are a person desiring to enter into the Catholic faith through Baptism or full communion (for those already baptized). You are welcome to begin a wonderful journey of faith through the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation). We are now providing a year round program and would love to have you join us as an inquirer.

We will begin monthly spring/summer sessions on the 3rd Sunday of each month, starting May 15, in the Adult Formation Rooms, after the 11:00 AM Mass.

To arrange an individual inquiry meeting, please contact Jacqui Rapp, at (502) 897-5207 ext 1119 or at jrapp@htparish.org for more information.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Sandi Wooldridge, sister to Christina Elpers, who died recently.

Please remember to pray for our candidates and elect as they head towards the Easter Vigil. You will find prayer cards in the gathering space and a copy of the prayer below.

Have you recently celebrated a Sacrament at Holy Trinity?

We are looking for photos for our new website! Please considering sharing any photos of your Baptism, Confirmation, Wedding or soon to be First Communion. We would love those photos to include the priest or deacon. You may share those photos with bcobb@htparish.org. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Betty Jean in the parish office.

Lord Jesus, we ask your blessings on those who aspire to join your Church through our parish community. As they ponder your Word and share their stories, may the fabric of their lives become interwoven with ours into the very Body of Christ, your Church. Give to us, Spirit of Love, the grace to walk their journeys with them, helping them to grow in knowledge and understanding of the faith. Instill in them a hunger for your Word and a steadfast heart that will allow them to stay the course. And, Creator God, may we all be one in you, as you are One—a Trinity of Being in continuous Loving union.

Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

Fifth Sunday of Lent (April 3, 2022)

"I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus is my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ." Philippians 3:8

St. Paul's knowledge of Christ redefined the true meaning of wealth. Like St. Paul, a Christian steward understands Christ is the most valuable gift of all.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Benedict the African (1524-1589), was born in San Fratello, Sicily to Cristoforo and Diana Manasseri, Africans who had been taken as slaves. Some accounts claim that because of his parents' loyal service that Benedict was given his freedom at birth, other sources say that his freedom was granted when he turned 18. At 21 Benedict joined a society of hermits living under the rule of St. Francis of Assisi. Eventually he succeeded his friend, Jerome Lanze, as their leader. When the Pope disbanded the independent hermit society, Benedict joined the Order of Friars Minor and he was sent to Palermo, to the Franciscan Friary of St. Mary of Jesus. There Benedict worked in the kitchens and despite being illiterate and a lay brother (not a priest), he also served as Master of Novices, and as Guardian of the Community. St. Benedict was known throughout his life as a brilliant cook under whose hands food seemed to multiply miraculously, a healer, and a spiritual leader with profound understanding. He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.
