501 CHERRYWOOD RD • LOUISVILLE, KY 40207 • (502) 897-5207 • WWW.HTPARISH.ORG

MISSION STATEMENT

Following Christ's example, we are striving to grow spiritually through worship, lifelong formation/education and service. We are dedicated to building a loving, caring faith community, sharing our gifts with all God's people. In achieving our mission, we value prayer, reconciliation, participation, inclusion, outreach, stewardship and respect for each person.

Why Do I Need A Will?

A properly executed will is one of the most important papers you will ever sign, yet a surprising number of people — more than 60 percent — do not have a will. Whether you have a large or small estate, you should have a will if you want your possessions distributed according to your wishes, rather than letting the state decide for you.

Holy Trinity Parish, and the Archdiocese of Louisville Office of Mission Advancement are offering a complimentary Estate Planning Information Session on Wednesday, June 8, 2022, from 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM at Holy Trinity in the multi-purpose room. Estate planning expert Cheryl Bruner will answer your questions and explore the different options for setting up your estate plan. To register, visit ARCHLOU.ORG/PG-WEBINAR. You may attend this session in person or via Zoom, but registration is limited. For more information or to register by phone, please call Melody Denson in the Office of Mission Advancement, 502-585-3291, Ext 1117.

Are you or someone you know interested in the Catholic faith? Do you have questions about the process of becoming Catholic? We invite you to one of our summer inquiry sessions. They will take place May 15th, June 19th, July 17th and August 21st after the 11:00 Mass in the Adult Formation Rooms (just off the gathering space). We would love to see you and talk to you further about your desire to learn more about our faith. If you have any questions, please contact Jacqui Rapp at 502-897-5207 ext 1119 or jrapp@htparish.org.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

"Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." (Acts 7:56)

PSALM

The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth. (Ps 97)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING

The one who gives this testimony says,
"Yes, I am coming soon."
Amen! Come, Lord Jesus! (Rev 22:20)

GOSPEL

That they may be brought to perfection as one,
that the world may know that
you sent me,
and that you loved them even as you
loved me. (Jn 17:23)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Unity and diversity can exist together. Our western minds have a grave difficulty seeing unity without conformity. We tend to believe that unless everyone believes the same thing, assents to the same body of truths, styles, and opinions, unity is not possible. Jesus, in today's Gospel, expresses a tenderness and an intimacy that the disciples actually can witness. This same tenderness and love are also reflected in his desire for unity and oneness. Jesus passionately wants all to be one. It is very clear that the success of Jesus' mission and the advance of the Gospel rises or falls with whether this unity is achieved. And it is a unity that is achieved around a person and not particulars. Our church is extremely divided. These divisions all center on various theologies, philosophies, structures, and styles. We allow these particular concerns and interpretations, valid as many can be, to drive wedges between us and put us at odds with each other. They enrage us and cause us to lash out at other members of the Body of Christ. Differences are bound to exist in any group. We are unique and diverse people. Staunchly clinging to particular agendas and ideologies while waving the "we're right, you're wrong" banner as we forge ahead in battle does little to advance the real mission of Christ. We are perceived as weak, fractioned, self-focused and serving, and lacking empathy and love. How can the work of salvation be accomplished like this? We sacrifice our credibility. For what?

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." These words describe exactly who the glorified Christ really is. Jesus wants us to see this glory! Believe this! This is the unifying principle that draws the Body of Christ together as one, not our particular preferences of worship! We give too much power to our preferences, and all too easily forget that the real mission of Christ is much more than that! If we can work at truly loving each other as members of Christ's Body despite the differences that can so quickly divide us, then maybe we'll be a bit more convincing to those who do not believe. The Risen Christ comes to us through the Eucharist. It doesn't matter where or how. Gather wherever you can and receive. We cannot substitute Jesus' passion with our own. We are one.

The Ascension of the Lord (May 29, 2022)
“Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: ‘Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one....’” John 17:20-21

It is through the stewardship of sharing our blessings with others, and caring for their needs, that we truly become one Body of Christ. Let us always pray to God our Father that we recognize these opportunities as they arise.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

We all have our ideas of who God is. We have to remember, however, that our ideas of God often do not capture who God really is. God is a wonderful mystery whose identity is inexhaustible. This makes life an exciting journey in search of belief, love, glory, and unity. Displaying all of the tenderness of a real love story, we hear from Jesus that God wants nothing more than for the world to believe. The same depth of affection given to Jesus, God the Father desires to share with us. Receiving this love gives the believer an even greater understanding of what gives us purpose and meaning. With God's unconditional love as our anchor, we can endure the greatest of hardships knowing that we carry the hope of glory within us. Sharing in the same incredible eternal destiny and glory that God gave His Son, we can all be one just as Jesus and the Father are one. Why is understanding all of this important? Because given the myriad choices of what can possibly define us, we now have the primordial truth of who we are given to us by God. We know, beyond doubt, where to look for true happiness and where our lives will end.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Joan of Arc (1412 – 1431) has had her story told throughout history through many books, movies and plays. She was born in the village of Domrémy, near the province of Lorraine, to a French peasant family. At a young age, she began to experience visions and voices, which were later identified to be of St. Michael, St. Catherine of Alexandria, and St. Margaret of Antioch. At the age of 13, all three saints told her that she was to drive the English from French territory, and that she must bring the Dauphin to Reims for his coronation. Trusting in God, she did as she was told.

During the Hundred Years War, St. Joan of Arc led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. Captured near Compiègne the following year, she was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft, eventually being found guilty and burned at the stake in Rouen.

St. Joan of Arc was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on May 16, 1920, and is the patron saint of military members.
