MISSION STATEMENT

Following Christ's example, we are striving to grow spiritually through worship, lifelong formation/education and service. We are dedicated to building a loving, caring faith community, sharing our gifts with all God's people. In achieving our mission, we value prayer, reconciliation, participation, inclusion, outreach, stewardship and respect for each person.

COMMUNITY

Presbyteral Assembly—June 6-9 Please check the Mass Schedule for this week, as Fr. Wayne and Fr. Casey will be attending the annual Presbyteral Assembly, June 6-9, with the Most Reverend Archbishop Shelton Fabre and priests of the Archdiocese of Louisville. In their absence, we will have only a Communion Service. This special time allows our priests to gather for common prayer, reflection and dialogue. Please keep our priests and Archbishop in special prayer this week.

Your Catholic Tour Company

Are you or someone you know interested in the Catholic faith? Do you have questions about the process of becoming Catholic? We invite you to one of our summer inquiry sessions. They will take place May 15th, June 19th, July 17th and August 21st after the 11:00 Mass in the Adult Formation Rooms (just off the gathering space). We would love to see you and talk to you further about your desire to learn more about our faith. If you have any questions, please contact Jacqui Rapp at 502-897-5207 ext 1119 or jrapp@htparish.org.

FOR EVERY CHILD

Have you had the opportunity to use either of our fully accessible playgrounds? Do you know someone who attends our Clifton Campus School? Maybe you've been to the Eifler Theater on our Clifton campus to see one of our musical theater performances over the years? Thanks to our For Every Child initiatives we are able to offer these opportunities and serve more children in our community. Just a few short years ago when this campaign began, we were asked, "If not us, who? If not now, when?" It is awesome to see what a remarkable difference we've made thus far. As we strive to reach our campaign goal, please prayerfully consider whether you have made your best gift to help us serve more children. Every donation makes a difference! Contact Shannon Klimek at sklimek@htparish.org or scan the QR code to set up your gift today.

Do You Want the State to Decide How Your Estate Is Distributed? If you do not have a valid will upon your death, the state of Kentucky will decide how your assets are distributed. State rules and regulations will determine how your property is distributed, who will manage your estate, and who will care for your children. Without a will, you will have no control over the disposition of your estate, and most likely your estate's administration expenses and taxes will be higher.

To learn more about making or updating your will, join us for a complimentary Estate Planning Information Session hosted by Holy Trinity parish and The Archdiocese of Louisville Office of Mission Advancement on Wednesday, June 8, 2022, from 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM at Holy Trinity in the multi-purpose room. Local estate planning expert, Cheryl Bruner, will be the presenter. All parishioners are invited to attend this informative presentation, either in person or via Zoom. To register, visit ARCHLOU.ORG/PG-WEBINAR. Reservations are limited. Please call Melody Denson from the Office of Mission Advancement at 502-585-3291, Ext. 1117 if you have any questions or to register by phone.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." - Jn 20:21-23

Pentecost Sunday (June 5, 2022) "And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim." Acts 2:4

At that first Pentecost, the Church was born as the Spirit filled the Apostles with the gift to proclaim the good news in numerous languages. All those who were present heard the good news proclaimed in their native tongue. Stewards use the gifts received through Confirmation to build up the parish community just as the disciples used their gifts to start the community of believers.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

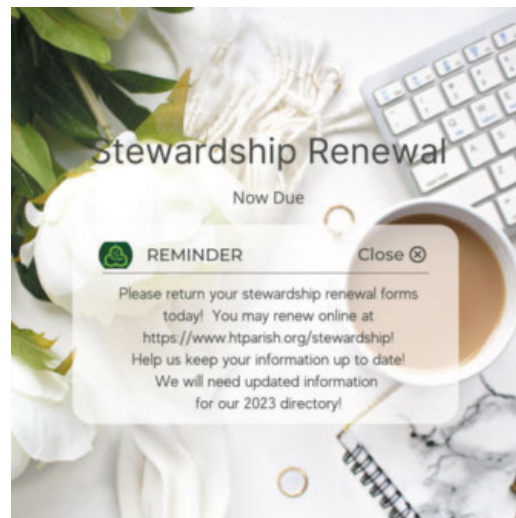

We encourage you to prepare yourself for next weekend's liturgy by reading and praying the scriptures. The readings for The Most Holy Trinity, June 12, 2022: Proverbs 8:22-31; Romans 5:1-5; and John 16:12-15

God the Father sent the Holy Spirit to take the place of Jesus on earth. When you are at home, in school, or in church, the Holy Spirit helps you learn new words and new skills. He helps you in your studying and praying. The Spirit helps you remember things from last week and last year. The Spirit helps you use this knowledge to lead you to heaven.

PRAYER

Father, I am thankful for the Holy Spirit who helps me learn new things.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will ask the Holy Spirit to help me remember things from the past.
