THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

COMMUNITY

Summer Bible School

We are excited to have Summer Bible School back at Holy Trinity this year from July 11-13; from 6:30-8:30p.m. each evening; with a special closing potluck on Thursday, July 14. The theme is "Holy Heroes" and is for ages 4-10. For more information or to register, please contact Vicky Chism at the Parish Office.

Would you like to be part of the Health Ministry for Holy Trinity?

We are looking for members that can help facilitate this ministry to exceed its potential. We are interested in hearing your voice regarding the wants and needs of our parish. Everyone is welcome! We welcome those with medical background (active or retired) and lay persons with interest and ideas. Please come join our first kick off meeting on June 23rd from 7pm-8pm in the Spiritual Life Building.

If you have any questions please contact: Allyson Skaggs, Health Ministry Coordinator, 502.593.5880 or Akskag01@outlook.com.

Are you or someone you know interested in the Catholic faith?

Do you have questions about the process of becoming Catholic? We invite you to one of our summer inquiry sessions. They will take place May 15th, June 19th, July 17th and August 21st after the 11:00 Mass in the Adult Formation Rooms (just off the gathering space). We would love to see you and talk to you further about your desire to learn more about our faith. If you have any questions, please contact Jacqui Rapp at 502-897-5207 ext 1119 or jrapp@htparish.org.

FOR EVERY CHILD

School is out for summer which means it's time for us to begin preparing for the 2022-23 school year! The Eifler Theater will go dark for several months as we begin the first phase of renovations. These long awaited updates will restore our beautiful theater and bring more opportunities to our students. We're also renovating a room on the third floor of our Clifton Campus school to serve as the 7th grade classroom, and creating a counseling office next to it so our students have easy access to Mrs. Cundiff throughout the day.

We've been blessed with a supportive community helping our dreams become reality, and we're so close to reaching our goal! Thanks to our For Every Child initiatives we are offering amazing opportunities to more children. By making a gift to the For Every Child Campaign you are not just making a donation, you are making a difference! Please reach out to Shannon Klimek at sklimek@htparish.org to learn how you can help, or scan the QR Code below to make your gift today.

Tomorrow is World Refugee Day when we celebrate those who have relocated to our archdiocese from around the world. Did you know that most refugees who come here are employed and self-sufficient within three months? The families also invigorate our population, fill important jobs, and contribute to the tax base. We're proud to be among those who welcome, empower, and strengthen these New Americans. cclou.org

Catholic Social Teaching

Today people often consider spirituality, prayer, and the Church's Tradition as distinct from justice, advocacy, and social concern. Truth is both Tradition and social justice are part of the Body of Christ and are meant to work together to serve God and neighbor. In order to help bridge this gap Epiphany's Pastoral Associate for Social Responsibility, Brenton Wolford, is giving five talks designed to illustrate the intimate link between Catholic Social Teaching and the Tradition of our Catholic faith. Each talk will be in Epiphany's Worship Center at 914 Old Harrods Creek Rd from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and will count as one hour of catechist credit toward Theology in the content area of Catholic Social Teaching. The schedule is on EpiphanyCatholicChurch.org. Contact Brenton Wolford at (502) 780-0394 or brenton@epiphanycatholicchurch.org with questions

Schedule:

- Wednesday, June 29
Catholic Social Teaching and the Person of Jesus Christ
- Tuesday, July 19
The Dignity of Human Life and the Catholic Tradition
- Wednesday, August 3
Subsidiarity and the Catholic Tradition
- Tuesday, August 16

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) (June 19, 2022)

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." Luke 9:17

The disciples wanted to send the people out to find their own provisions, but Jesus had a different plan. The miracle of the loaves and fishes reminds us that when we share our gifts in His name there will always be more than enough.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Saint of the Week

Sir Thomas More was a humanist and statesman in Tudor England. He is still widely known today as the author of Utopia. More was a prolific writer and theologian. A true martyr of the Church, he was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886, and canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 19, 1935. More was born in London in 1478, the son of Sir John More, a lawyer and judge. He attended Oxford where he studied Latin and Greek, as well as formal logic. He left Oxford in 1494 to train as a lawyer in London. After attaining the Bar, he spent time discerning a call to the priesthood. Though attracted to the Franciscan order More remained a lay Christian, continuing to fast, pray, and wear a hair shirt. He was married twice, the loving father of three daughters, a stepdaughter by his second marriage, and one son. More wrote many letters to his children when he was away on business and his daughters were known for their academic abilities, as they received the same education as his son, an anomaly at the time.

More rose to the Privy Council in 1514. He became the good friend and advisor to Henry VIII, and in 1521 he was knighted. In 1529 he was made Lord Chancellor of England. However, this appointment was the beginning of the end for the saint. He could not support the break with the Church in Rome when Henry failed to receive from the Pope the annulment of his first marriage to Katherine of Aragon to wed Anne Boleyn. More resigned as Lord Chancellor and continued to refuse to accept Henry as the head of the Church in England. Eventually he was imprisoned, tried, and sentenced to a traitor's death, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. Henry commuted the sentence of his former friend to the more humane beheading. More was executed at Tower Hill, on July 6, 1535, before his death he famously proclaimed that he was "the king's good servant, but God's first."
