MISSION STATEMENT

Following Christ's example, we are striving to grow spiritually through worship, lifelong formation/education and service. We are dedicated to building a loving, caring faith community, sharing our gifts with all God's people. In achieving our mission, we value prayer, reconciliation, participation, inclusion, outreach, stewardship and respect for each person.

JUNE 26, 2022 | 13TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

COMMUNITY

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Paul Cooper, husband to Marianne, whose Rite of Christian burial was here.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Eric Romero, brother to Jennifer Mutwalli, who died recently.

Summer Bible School

We are excited to have Summer Bible School back at Holy Trinity this year from July 11-13; from 6:30-8:30p.m. each evening; with a special closing potluck on Thursday, July 14. The theme is "Holy Heroes" and is for ages 4-10. For more information or to register, please contact Vicky Chism at the Parish Office.

Eucharistic Adoration On Friday, July 1, 2022, from 8:45 AM until 4:30 PM, there will be Eucharistic Adoration, in the chapel. During exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, there must be someone present in the chapel throughout the duration of time. We encourage you to take the opportunity to drop in and pray during this special time. Deacon Andy will conclude Adoration with Benediction and Prayer beginning at 4:15 PM.

FOR EVERY CHILD

While our students are off for summer break we are busy getting things ready for next school year. Several renovations are underway on our Clifton Campus as we prepare to welcome 64+ students in the fall. The new 7th grade classroom is almost complete, as well as the counselor's office on the third floor. We're excited for the addition of our STEAM room which will provide our students more opportunities in Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics!

Renovations in the Eifler Theater are also underway. We'll be upgrading electrical, replacing the catwalk and lighting, changing the rigging and curtains, and improving the audio equipment, just to name a few updates. These changes will bring additional opportunities for our students to be involved in the whole production process and we can't wait to see what they can do! Stay tuned for updates on these renovations, and contact Shannon Klimek at sklimek@htparish.org if you would like to contribute to our For Every Child Campaign to help serve more children.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Sapienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time in for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.
