19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

- Lk 12:39-40

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

MISSION STATEMENT

Following Christ's example, we are striving to grow spiritually through worship, lifelong formation/education and service. We are dedicated to building a loving, caring faith community, sharing our gifts with all God's people. In achieving our mission, we value prayer, reconciliation, participation, inclusion, outreach, stewardship and respect for each person.

AUGUST 7, 2022 | 19TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

COMMUNITY

Faith, Reason and Science Have you heard it said that Faith and Reason are not compatible? Or the Church and Science just don't get along ... remember that story about Galileo. Pope St. John Paul II may give you a clue as to how wrong these assumptions are ... "Faith and Reason are like two wings on which the human spirit rises to contemplation of the truth", Fides et Ratio. Check out the info area for pamphlets/handouts and a list of resources to further understand the relationship of Faith, Reason and Science.

Novena for the Feast of the Assumption August 6-14

You are invited to pray the following Novena as a personal prayer request or as a group (family, committee or among friends) praying for a common special intention. Copies of the novena prayers may be found in the info area or chapel. Lord Jesus Christ, You have destroyed the power of death and given the hope of eternal life in body and soul. You granted your Mother a special place in your glory, and did not allow decay to touch her body. As we rejoice in the Assumption of Mary, give to us a renewed confidence in the victory of life over death. You live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

What is a Novena?

A Novena is a nine day period of private or public prayer to obtain special graces, to implore special favors, or make special petitions. It usually either precedes or follows an important feast. When we pray a Novena, we either pray the same prayer for all nine days or follow a list of prayers to be prayed for a special intention for each day. Every novena is a bit different in the intention, formation of prayers and practice. The novena prayer may be said in conjunction with the rosary or scriptural readings. There are several sites online providing novenas for most feasts.

Holy Trinity offers a religious education program called GIFT, (Growing In Faith Together) for students in grades 1-8 who do not attend the parish school and/or are homeschooled. Sacramental preparation is included for students in grades 2 and 8, who have already had at least one year of formal religious education. GIFT classes take place weekly, between masses on Sundays, from 9:30a.m.-10:25a.m.; and run September through the end of April. There will be a "Welcome and Orientation" meeting for families on Sunday, August 28; at 10:00a.m., in the MPB. Classes begin on September 11 in the school classrooms. More information and registration forms can be found on the parish website, or you may contact Vicky Chism at the Parish Office for more details.

Gala to Honor Archbishop Emeritus Joseph E. Kurtz

"Race for Belonging: Catholic Disability Gala" to honor Archbishop Emeritus Joseph Kurtz for his past service with the National Catholic Partnership on Disability (NCPD). Join the celebration at St. Louis Bertrand Church (1104 S. Sixth Street, Louisville, Ky.) on Saturday, August 27. Following Mass at 4:15 pm, tour the Shrine of Saint Margaret of Castello (patron saint of persons with disabilities), then enjoy cocktails, silent auction, and dinner. Proceeds will provide clergy and lay leaders with training to support persons with disabilities and their families in the Church. For cost and registration information, visit NCPD.org/CatholicDisability or call (781) 951-4553. Please register by August 15.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 7
"Jesus said to his disciples: '....Sell your belongings and give alms.an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.
For where your treasure is, there also your heart will be.'" Luke 12:33-34

A good way to examine "where our heart is," is to spend time reviewing our appointment calendar and our checkbook. Where am I spending my time and money? A thoughtful examination will reveal where our heart really is.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

The fruits of our labors are not always seen in our lifetimes. Faith is not conditional on seeing results. Faith is a radical trust in what is unseen. It requires vigilance and self-investment. It requires our attention even when our efforts don't bear fruit or are unappreciated or unrecognized. A person who is open to accepting God's presence, however it comes, and is willing to share the love received with others is a true inspiration. Good works will flow from this vigilant depth of faith. It will be directed where it is most needed and detached from the need for recognition or gratitude. Faith exercised in secret is the most profound expression of faith and a testament of true love for our Creator. No one needs to know the humility, generosity, and goodness of our hearts, only God. Standing erect and watchful, we are prepared to receive the gift of Divine Love and freely share it with others, without recognition or self-benefit.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was born to a noble family in Dijon, France, on January 28, 1572. Her mother died when she was an infant. Her father raised her and provided for her education. In 1592 she married the Baron de Chantal, the couple were devoted to each other. They had six children, three of whom died in infancy. As Baroness, Saint Jane Frances restored the custom of daily Mass, and was famous for her charitable works. Unfortunately, her husband died in a hunting accident only eight years after their marriage. Devastated Jane Frances was forced to live in her father-in-law's strict household where she took a vow of chastity.

In 1604 while visiting her father in Dijon, she met Saint Francis de Sales and he became her close friend and spiritual director. Although not many of their epistles have survived, the pair had a lively correspondence which lasted until Saint Francis died.

Under the direction of St. Francis de Sales and with his partnership she established the Congregation of the Visitation at Annecy in 1610. This was a unique order, without the extreme ascetical practices typical in other religious orders, accepting women and girls and those rejected by other orders because of poor health or age. The new order was also unusual in its public ministry, rather than a strictly cloistered life. Saint Jane transformed her convent at Annecy into a hospital during the plague of 1628.

The saint died at the Visitation Convent in Moulins on December 13, 1641. At the time of her death, there were 86 convents of Visitation nuns. She was canonized in 1767 by Pope Clement XIII.
