AUGUST 14, 2022 | 20TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

**FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...AUGUST 14TH****

"I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!" The Gospel for this weekend reminded me of how I felt when I woke up on June 22, 2022 as your new pastor. I was ready to set the world and this parish on fire! I was ready to evangelize! I was ready to create and form disciples! I was ready to conquer the world! And then reality sank in, as it always does. It's the summer...not many people are around! People are traveling on vacations or for work. Kiddos are outside running around and preparing for and conditioning for one sport...and then another...and then another. I am not used to sharing the Mass and preaching schedule with two other priests and a deacon. I was in total shock the first weekend I was completely free of any liturgical responsibilities. I did not know what to do with myself!

As the weeks went by my "to-do" list was growing. I was getting to know the staff and the parishioners more and they were getting to know me. It is a little overwhelming to think there are hundreds more I haven't even seen or met yet. I was doing my best to listen, to observe, and to learn about our parish and the people who call this place home.

I was looking forward to our Parish Festival. Finally, a chance for me to meet some more individuals and families I've yet to greet. Then, on August 2, I tested positive for Covid. I had managed to avoid it for almost 2 years and 6 months. The timing of it wasn't the best, but I guess it could have been worse. My symptoms were mild to medium and I am grateful they were not worse. After several days of sleeping, coughing, and quarantining, I began to feel anxious. I was dying of boredom. I knew with absolute certainty that I was not called to be a monk or a hermit, but most definitely a parish priest!

Not being able to see my parishioners, my staff, or guests and visitors took a toll on me. There is a lot of work and ministry to be done here, and on day one, I was ready to set this parish ablaze with the fire of God's love, mercy, compassion, and strength. Then, God taught me a lesson...slow down...don't do everything all at once. Be patient...be still...be open to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Well, like many of you, I do not have a patient bone in my body, but I had no choice. All I could do was work from home, pray a lot more, sleep, and wait. Waiting is the worst part, especially when you see so many resources and so much potential right before your eyes. There are great things in store for our parish Holy Trinity. There are so many wonderful opportunities of discipleship, ministry, and evangelization here, and I look forward to leading all of you as your pastor and shepherd.

"I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!" In a way it already is blazing. The fire never has gone out, but we have many opportunities ahead of us to make that fire bright, strong, known, and powerful again! It is all of our responsibility! Come Holy Spirit!

May God bless you and your loved ones, now, and forever.
Fr. Shayne

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (August 14)
"....while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith. For the sake of the joy that lay before him, he endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:2

Setting PRIORITIES is the key to balancing everyday demands made on us with the limited amounts of time, talent, and treasure we possess. When we accept Jesus as our priority, we do not squander our gifts.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

There is a "great cloud of witnesses" found in the official saints of the church and in ordinary people we meet every day. They are faith-filled inspirations who, by their example, help us to persevere in our faith. Living in a sea of conflict, change, challenge, and confusion, it is easy to grow tired and get weary. With so many things in competition for our attention, it is challenging to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and the Kingdom of God. We have to keep running the race and continue proclaiming the Good News. This message is not always welcome. It can cause division, challenge accepted mindsets, ruffle peoples' feathers, and cause some folks to become defensive. God's ways are not always our ways. Even though often rejected by the world, the message of God in Jesus Christ must continue to be preached. We can rely on the examples of faith before us and around us and not lose heart. As Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Born a pagan in the 10th century Saint Stephen was baptized as a boy when his father converted to Christianity. Saint Stephen married Gisela, daughter of Duke Henry II of Bavaria who would become Saint Henry II. He succeeded his father as leader and began to transform the nation into a Christian kingdom.

Pope Sylvester II proclaimed him the first king of Hungary in 1001, sending him a crown and gold processional cross. The crown, made in the Byzantine style, has become a symbol of Hungarian nationhood.

King Stephen's reign was a relatively peaceful and prosperous time. He outlawed paganism, mandated church building, and tithing for support of the parish, and commanded all to marry except clergy and religious. He founded a Benedictine monastery, and Hungary became an important place along the route to the Holy Land for many pilgrims.

Unfortunately, Stephen's son and heir died in a hunting accident, causing much conflict over the succession when the saint died. Eventually the kingdom was won back for Christendom and father and son were canonized in 1083 by Pope St. Gregory VII. Saint Stephen I is now patron saint of Hungary.
