JANUARY 22, 2023

REV. FR. SHAYNE R. DUVALL

Dear Holy Trinity,

While finishing up my last semester of canon law studies in the spring of 2021, I developed low back pain. Shortly thereafter, the pain spread to my upper back, my neck, and my face along with headaches. In these past 2 years, I've seen over 30 physicians, taken countless medications, and undergone numerous treatments. Nothing has helped. At every point of the day, I am in pain somewhere in my body, though you would not know it by looking at me. Some days are worse than others. I have finally been diagnosed with a pain syndrome that is not well-understood. Paradoxically, I can go run 10 miles, during which time the pain may even temporarily go away. This has all taken a considerable emotional toll on me.

In order to address this more in earnest so that I can be zealously and fully engaged in priestly ministry, I petitioned Archbishop Fabre last month for a full medical leave, which he has graciously granted. I will be flying to Los Angeles on January 23, where my physician there has set up an intensive pain clinic for me. I am planning to be there two months, but the duration depends on my progress and my physician's counsel. I look forward to returning to Holy Trinity when I am finished there. God willing, I will return either pain-free or with at least a renewed hope for a pain-free future.

I have all the Masses this coming weekend. I will be speaking then a bit more about my situation. Please keep me in your daily prayers. I might ask you in particular to seek the intercession of St. Gemma Galgani for me, as she is the patron saint of sufferers of back pain. St. Gemma, pray for us!

His,
Fr. Casey

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Tammy Belcher, sister to Laura Sheffer, who died recently.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Patrick Devore, husband to Dianne and father to Anthony and Nicholas, who died recently.
