A letter from Fr. Casey

Dear Holy Trinity,

Praise God, I am home. My mother is most relieved. I flew home on Saturday, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord to the Blessed Virgin Mary. In nine months, we will celebrate the nativity of our Lord. Sadly, Fr. Shayne tells me it's too early to put up the tree.

With the help of my clinicians in Los Angeles, I spent the past two months attempting to change my relationship with my chronic pain. I have learned that it is hanging on for numerous reasons. I know many of you might be wondering if I am pain free? Am I healed? What else can we as a community do for you? I kindly ask that you try and understand why I cannot go into all of the details. Unfortunately, I am still dealing with pain. I am not healed, but I am hopeful that I will soon be! I did realize that a primary reason for my pain is that I have a focus problem. By focusing on the pain nearly nonstop, I have been reinforcing neural pathways that produce the pain. Though difficult, part of my ongoing work is to reverse that by intentionally redirecting my focus and attention away from the pain.

This is where you all come in. While I know you are concerned for how I am doing - for which I am most grateful - and I know the kind and normal thing to do is ask a person, "How are you feeling? Are you getting better? How's the pain?" I am cordially asking you to please do your best and refrain from asking me questions about my health and my pain. As I mentioned before, I am working on redirecting my focus and attention away from the pain, and questions like, "How is your neck?" will not help. I'll gladly entertain all your other questions. "How was the food in LA?" and "Did you see Justin Bieber?" are perfectly suitable questions. "Father, where is the toilet paper?" is another suitable question, but I still don't know the answer!

I will gradually resume my ministry at Holy Trinity, starting April 3, Monday of Holy Week. I want to thank you all for your prayers and kind notes of encouragement during my time away. I especially want to thank Fr. Shayne and Fr. Wayne for stepping up to help during my time away. They are a blessing to me, as are all of you.

Lenten blessings to you all as we continue our journey with Jesus to Calvary.

His,
Fr. Casey

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

(April 9, 2023)

“This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.” Acts 10:40-41

Needed to meet budget (monthly):	$115,384
Fiscal Year Budget:	$1,500,000
Received Month of March:	$126,486
Year to Date:	$1,210,437
Overage/(Shortfall):	$85,437

The first disciples were people who witnessed the risen Christ in the flesh. The author of Acts emphasizes that they ate and drank with the risen Christ. How we take care of each other "in this life" is an important part of our spiritual life. Stewardship is not about having pious thoughts, but about making life better for others in the flesh.
