A Message from Deacon Kenny

Dear Holy Trinity Parish Members,

Hello! My name is Kenny Nauert, and I am a transitional deacon for the Archdiocese of Louisville. I am looking forward to living with and serving you this summer as I continue to work towards the priesthood. I would like to tell you more about myself as I begin my ministry with you.

I am 27 years old and was born and raised in Louisville in the Shively area and my home parish is St. Lawrence. My parents are Kenny and Dee Dee Nauert, and I am the oldest of four, with two brothers - Tommy and Adam - and one sister - Hope. Dad is a retired Louisville Metro Police Officer but continues to work as a campus police officer for the University of Louisville. Mom is a Catholic school teacher at Notre Dame Academy. She has taught Science, Math, Religion, and Social Studies for the sixth and eighth grades, and is now the STEM and Technology Coordinator for Notre Dame Academy. My brother, Adam, is a full-time employee for Kroger. My brother, Tommy, works for the Army Corps of Engineers. My sister, Hope, will be a senior at Presentation Academy.

I went to Notre Dame Academy and graduated from DeSales High School. At DeSales, Religion and Art were my favorite subjects. I also studied Spanish all four years. During high school and college, I was employed for five years as a maintenance assistant at my Catholic grade school during the summer, as well as an usher for the Louisville Bats Baseball Company at Slugger Field. I was also a driver's assistant for Standard Sales of Louisville delivering beer for one summer. After high school, I attended Western Kentucky University.

At WKU, I majored in Religious Studies, History, and Asian Religions and Cultures with a focus on Catholicism and Islam. While I studied Spanish in high school, in college I studied Arabic for two years. Before seminary, my goal was to attend a Ph.D. program in either Islamic Studies or Comparative Religion. However, God had other plans for me. I graduated in 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies and a certificate in Middle Eastern Studies. In 2018, I graduated from WKU with a master's degree in Religious Studies as well. During college, I was a work study student in the Philosophy and Religion Department at WKU, and during graduate school I was a Teaching Assistant and helped teach courses in World Religions and Islam. In my final two years of college, I was a staff camp counselor for Gasper River Catholic Youth Camp and Retreat Center in Bowling Green, KY, leading group activities and retreats.

My vocational discernment began in the fourth grade when I was preparing for my first Reconciliation. My parish priest had asked me if I had ever thought about being a priest. Yet, it was not until I was in high school that I began thinking about what God wanted me to do in my life. I thought of being a doctor, a lawyer, or a schoolteacher. Eventually, I settled on being a college professor when I went to WKU. At WKU, my discernment began in earnest. I joined the Catholic Center on campus and became involved with numerous bible study groups, men's groups, and a discernment group. I started working at Gasper River and it was there that I found that I loved ministry. I began spiritual direction in college, and with my director's guidance, began to really discern the priesthood. After an encounter with God in Adoration at a conference in Chicago, I decided to go to seminary, and scheduled an appointment with the vocation director the week after that and began the application process for seminary.

I spent my first two years of seminary at Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology in southern Indiana, graduating with a Master of Arts degree in Catholic Philosophical Studies. At Saint Meinrad, I studied Philosophy and returned to my Spanish studies. I took two years of graduate-level Spanish, but I am still not fluent and am continuing to learn. After Saint Meinrad, I moved to Washington, D.C. to study at Theological College and the Catholic University of America. I just finished my third year of Theology there and was ordained a deacon on March 25th. I just finished my Baccalaureate in Sacred Theology (STB) and will begin studies for Canon Law in the Fall. God willing, in May of 2024, I will be ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Louisville.

"Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread." 1 Corinthians 10:17

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops teaches us (in their pastoral letter on stewardship) that the Eucharistic celebration should lead to works of charity and mutual help. The heart of stewardship is this "Eucharistic stewardship."
