“What’s New In ArchLou Podcast”

– June 2023

Join us each month to find out what’s new in the Archdiocese of Louisville. This monthly podcast will highlight the people and ministries of the Archdiocese of Louisville, the Catholic Church in Central Kentucky. Each month, we welcome guests to discuss what’s going on in the Archdiocese and invite you to get involved as you deepen your engagement with your Catholic faith. For the June episode, Father Paul Beach, rector of the Shrine of St. Martin of Tours and Judicial Vicar for the Archdiocese, joins host Dr. Brian Reynolds, Chancellor of the Archdiocese, to discuss what’s new about Archbishop Shelton’s decision to designate St. Martin of Tours in Louisville as the Archdiocese of Louisville’s first shrine. The podcast can be found on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Google Podcasts, iHeart Radio, the Faith Channel and the Archdiocese of Louisville’s web page, YouTube Channel and Facebook page. This program is brought to you by the Arch Lou Podcast Network. Each episode is released the first Tuesday of each month – June 6, 2023.

Annual Community Back to School Fair

The Archdiocese of Louisville’s Office of Multicultural Ministry will host its 17th Annual Community Back to School Fair on Saturday, July 15, 2023, from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. (or until supplies run out) for grades 1-12 at the Catholic Enrichment Center located at 3146 West Broadway, Louisville, KY 40211. This event is a component of the Family Life and Community Outreach and Academic Enrichment programs which minister to families regardless of race, religion, or geographical location. The goal is to assist our youth with a successful start to their school year by providing them with pencils, ink pens, paper, spiral notebooks, pocket folders, markers, crayons, colored pencils, scissors, glue, glue sticks, book bags (backpacks) and other school supplies. The event is free to the public. Snacks and drinks will also be provided. We are accepting school supply donations of any items mentioned. You can also donate a full backpack (preferably no string backpacks) to include 3 folders, 2 spiral notebooks, 1 composition notebook, 1 pencil pouch or box, 1 pack of pencils, 1 box of crayons, color pencils or markers, 1 pack of pens, 1 pack of loose-leaf paper, and more if you desire. If you would prefer to make a monetary donation toward the purchase of supplies, we would welcome that as well. Donations can be dropped off at the Maloney Center located at 1200 South Shelby Street, Louisville, KY, or the Catholic Enrichment Center, 3146 West Broadway, Louisville, KY, and checks can be made out to CEC or the Catholic Enrichment Center. We will collect supplies through Monday, July 10, 2023. On behalf of the families that we serve, we would like to thank you in advance for your donation and for your efforts to contribute to shaping the future of our community. For more information, please call (502)471-2146 or (502)776-0262. This event is an implementation of the Archdiocesan Strategic Plan and made possible through Catholic Services Appeal.

A Message from Father Casey

As many of you know, the Eucharistic Revival is well underway in the United States. As of Corpus Christi, the focus of the revival is now on the parish.

The Corpus Christi procession we held on June 11 was a kick-off to the revival at our parish. We hadn't had such a procession here in years, I am told! It was so beautiful and moving to process through our neighborhood with our Eucharistic Lord. We are continuing to discern how best to foster Eucharistic revival here at Holy Trinity. We will certainly continue Eucharistic Adoration every Tuesday evening after Mass until 9:30pm.

As we know, the Mass is the source and summit of all that we do. Revival must start and end there. The Second Vatican Council called for liturgical reform to be undertaken with an emphasis on noble simplicity. By noble, the Council meant everything in the Mass - gestures and sacred music, in particular - is to be rich in meaning. By simplicity, it meant those elements are to be relatively understandable with some liturgical formation; let us not forget, however, that the Mass is a mystery beyond all telling!

With noble simplicity in mind, then, we are introducing changes to our sacred music as we return to Ordinary Time on June 17. You will notice new beautiful sacred hymns and greater use of instrumentals, especially during the Preparation of the Gifts. Instrumentals are an opportunity for the congregation to peacefully meditate on the mystery before them without worrying about the lyrics of the hymn. Further, we will be choosing hymns throughout Ordinary Time that highlight the devotional emphasis of that particular month. For example, June will focus on the Sacred Heart of Jesus and July on His Most Precious Blood. We hope these changes help you to pray the Mass well as you actively and fully participate in the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

Let us continue to strive toward Eucharistic revival here at our parish. Please pray for Fr. Shayne and me that we may discern how best to foster that.

His,
Fr. Casey

"The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers for the harvesting." Matthew 9:37-38

A steward is not a spectator. We are not called to simply cheer on other people as they do good works. All of us are expected to roll up our sleeves and participate in the work of the church.

We encourage you to prepare yourself for next weekend's liturgy by reading and praying the scriptures. The readings for June 25, 2023, Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary time: Jeremiah 20:10-13; Romans 5:12-15; Matthew 10:26-33
