The announcement below was made at all weekend. Masses on November 11th and 12th. We have published it here, in case you missed it.

Dear Holy Trinity parish,

I just met with Archbishop Fabre this past Tuesday, and it is bittersweet that I announce that he has assigned me as the parochial administrator of the parish of St. John Paul II over off Goldsmith Lane, effective January 4, 2024. It is sweet because I have longed for some time to be able to shepherd my own parish. That has been delayed on account of my health, but it is gradually improving so I am grateful to the archbishop for giving me this opportunity. It is bitter that I make this announcement because I will be leaving Holy Trinity parish, with January 3, 2024 being my last day. My two and a half years here have been a time of growth and love for me. This is a parish full of life and holiness, so I will miss you.

Also effective January 4, 2024, Fr. Steven Henriksen, whom many of you know, will be returning as associate pastor to take my place. I understand he is excited and eager to return. Please keep him in your prayers as he transitions back to Holy Trinity. And, please pray for me and the people of St. John Paul II, as well as Fr. Peter Do, their current pastor as he takes on a new assignment. I am excited but also quite anxious about this new assignment. I trust in our Lord's Providence, the intercession of St. John Paul II, and Archbishop Fabre's wisdom in assigning me there. Fr. Shayne tells me that you will have a more formal opportunity of some kind to bid me farewell before my last day. Please stay tuned for those details as we've not had time yet to plan anything. Thank you and God bless you all.

In Jesus through Mary,
Fr. Casey

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
(November 19, 2023)

"He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters I will give you great responsibilities.'" Matthew 25:20-21

The stewards in this parable are expected to invest their treasure according to their master's wishes. God expects a return on the gifts that have been entrusted to us. This return is manifest in the way we use our gifts to serve others.
